Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (See the instructions.)

Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? see statement 1

All organizations must describe their exempt purpose achievements in a clear and concise manner. State the number of clients served, publications issued, etc. Discuss achievements that are not measurable. (Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) nonexempt charitable trusts must also enter the amount of grants and allocations to others.)

Program Service Expenses
(Required for 501(c)(3) and (4) orgs., and 4947(a)(1) trusts; but optional for others.)

Primary Exempt Purpose

Ansonia Music Outreach Organization, Inc.
13-3674001

Primary Exempt Purpose

The mission of AMO is to help establish the musical arts as a more essential and valuable experience in the lives of the general public. This is carried out by presenting classical music concerts and events to underserved communities, and the physically and economically disadvantaged; by presenting innovative music education events for the young; and by providing professional performance and collaborative opportunities to young post-graduate musicians and composers. Our performers provide an important service to the New York City community, sharing their passion for music with disadvantaged and underserved audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

Founded in 1992, Ansonia Music Outreach has presented hundreds of chamber music concerts and events, reaching thousands of people throughout the New York City area. Through our programs, Access to Music, Music for the Young, and the Composer Workshop, we give struggling talented musicians a chance to perform, provide performance and recording opportunities to promising composers that wish to reach a new audience, and give our target audiences experiences that demonstrate the depth and rewards that the musical arts can offer.

Through our Access to Music program, Ansonia Music Outreach presents quality classical chamber music concerts to audiences who, because of illness, age, lack of exposure, or economic means, cannot attend such performances. This program presents classical music to underserved communities that are not able or likely to visit traditional concert settings. Our Music for the Young program brings classical music to student age audiences. Ansonia Music Outreach has presented free events such as school residencies, one-time concerts for assemblies and small groups, full orchestra and wind band coachings, chamber music and solo instrument master-classes, sectionals, private and group lessons, work with established music programs, as well as with general non-music students. Focus is on students grades K-12. Our Composer Workshop program gives fine young composers an opportunity to work with AMO musicians who perform and record their work. Its purpose is to support the creation and presentation of new works and to help bring this music to a new audience. Our Composer Workshop program encourages promising young composers by fostering the creation, performance, and appreciation of their music.
